-  ROW 1
-  ROW 2
-  ROW 3
-  ROW 4
-  ROW 5

Pick up Row 1 & 2

...Continue Row 3 c), at an angle down through the row 1 bead as shown...

Decrease 4. add 1 bead between all the raised row 4 beads and go right to left through the row 4 beads as shown. Do turn and go with working thread in the same manner as you ended and turned in Row 3.

Add Clasp 5.

To end thread weave through as shown in illustration. Crossing over the threads lock them in place without knotting. Bring in a new thread with a stopper bead, then weave off the new thread after removing the stopper bead in the same manner that was done with the old thread.
